

SCHOOL-BASED TRAINEESHIPS

Work-Based Learning, Employability Skills, Accredited VET Qualification, QCE Credits

School-based traineeships allow Secondary Students to work for an employer and train toward a nationally recognised VET qualification while completing their studies at school.

Benefits for students choosing a School-based Traineeship include:

- Students can earn up to 8 QCE credits
- VET qualifications can be included in a students Senior Education and Training (SET) plan
- Traineeships develop work-related skills and provide first-hand work experience that make students more employable
- Traineeships provide learning opportunities beyond the traditional curriculum and include work-based learning
- Students undertake competency-based assessment that meets industry standards
- Support from trainers and workplace mentors committed to successful outcomes for students
